Effective Salary Negotiation: Earn Thousands in Minutes

Many of us are so happy to receive an offer for a job we want that we say “yes” way too quickly! A more effective approach involves discussing the offer with them, since once you receive an offer, all the leverage has switched from them to you; they aren’t thinking about your competition anymore!

In this webinar, you will learn a strategic approach to negotiating your compensation that will usually enable you to increase your income on the spot. We’ll also discuss techniques for negotiating the job, so you are set up for long term success. Areas we will cover include:

- ✓ Enhancing your negotiating leverage by taking the right actions during the interview (and avoiding the wrong ones).
- ✓ What to do and say as soon as you get the offer.
- ✓ What can be negotiated (in short, everything!).
- ✓ The importance of negotiating the job as well as the salary.
- ✓ Why and how severance should be included in your negotiation.
- ✓ The key role of research in improving your leverage.
